

OFFICE OF THE INFORMATION &
PRIVACY COMMISSIONER for British Columbia

Protecting privacy. Promoting transparency.

Announcement

April 16, 2019

BC Information and Privacy Commissioner and award-winning UK journalist to headline free event about Brexit, Facebook, and Cambridge Analytica

[Victoria]—The Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner for BC is pleased to co-sponsor an evening with award-winning UK reporter Carole Cadwalladr and BC Information and Privacy Commissioner Michael McEvoy:

Brexit, Facebook, and Cambridge Analytica: The reporting and investigation of a scandal.

When: Tuesday, April 30, 2019

Time: 6:00pm to 7:30pm

Where: Fraser Building, Room 159, University of Victoria

Carole Cadwalladr

Reporter and feature writer for the UK's Observer and Guardian newspapers.

Carole Cadwalladr received the National Press Awards "Technology Journalist of the Year" award for her exposure of the Facebook-Cambridge Analytica scandal.

Michael McEvoy

Information and Privacy Commissioner for BC

Prior to his appointment as Commissioner, Michael McEvoy helped lead the UK Information Commissioner's investigation of Cambridge Analytica.

Presented by the University of Victoria's Department of Political Science.

Sponsored by the Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner for BC, the University of Victoria Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council, and the Faculty of Social Sciences.

Free and open to the public

Media contacts:

Jane Zatylny

Office of the Information and Privacy Commissioner for B.C.

V: 250-415-3283 / jzatylny@oipc.bc.ca

Anne MacLaurin

Communications Officer, Faculty of Social Sciences

University of Victoria | C: 250-217-4259 | sosccomm@uvic.ca