Privacy protection authorities to discuss findings of joint investigation into TikTok

VICTORIA - The privacy protection authorities for Canada, Québec, British Columbia and Alberta will hold a news conference to discuss the findings of an investigation into popular online video-sharing platform TikTok.

The joint investigation had a particular focus on TikTok's privacy practices as they relate to younger users, including whether the company obtained valid and meaningful consent from these users for the collection, use and disclosure of their personal information.

Participants at the press conference will include:

- Philippe Dufresne, Privacy Commissioner of Canada
- Naomi Ayotte, Acting Vice-President and Commissioner of the Oversight division, Commission d'accès à l'information du Québec
- Michael Harvey, Information and Privacy Commissioner for British Columbia
- Diane McLeod, Information and Privacy Commissioner of Alberta.

The investigation's Report of Findings will be available at <https://www.oipc.bc.ca/reports/investigation-and-audit-reports/> at 10 am PT on September 23, 2025. Embargoed copies are not available in advance.
